

ROULETTE

RULE BOOK

OBJECTIVE:

To correctly guess and place wagers on which number (on the wheel), the ball will end up on.

PLAYING THE GAME:

- For 1-7 Players
- Players place their bets and the croupier spins the wheel to obtain the winning number

BETTING:

Betting is grouped into two major categories:

Inside Bets: made on numbers directly inside the layout.

Outside Bets: made on the betting area on the roulette table, bordering the number layout. Different tables have slightly different layouts for outside betting. You find the location for the bet you want to make, and place your chip there.

Inside Bets

The number layout is the part of the table containing squares with numbers in them. The squares are laid out 12 rows by three columns with 0 and 00 numbers at one end.
